Dr. AMBEDKAR INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY, BANGALORE
Department Of Master of Business Administration (MBA)

FEEDBACK REPORT

Sl.No.	Feedback of Stakeholders	Remarks
1.	Teacher's Feedback on Curriculum	The objectives of the Program are well defined & suits the industry requirement satisfactorily & there is scope for further improvement & refinement. Since there is a transition in the scheme from VTU curriculum to Autonomy at Dr AIT new courses pertaining to employability can be introduced to suit the current industrial requirements. Industry Institute Interaction has to be improved.
2.	Student's Feedback On Curriculum	The curriculum for the syllabus is well defined and updated as per the industry requirement. Developing the soft skills of the students can be given due importance. Application oriented courses have to be introduced. Industry interaction has to be increased along with the Industrial Visits.
3.	Alumni Feedback on Curriculum	The alumni appreciated the autonomous status obtained by Dr AIT as the department can have greater autonomy in syllabus revision. To organise the invited talk by esteemed alumni was suggested. Faculty & student exchange program has to be initiated. Guest lectures has to be organised by Industry experts.
4.	Employer Feedback	More than 50% of the employers are satisfied with the performance of our students. It was suggested to develop a mechanism to have a continuous association with the industry so that through our reference the fresher's recruitment can be achieved.
