Dr. Mahalinga v. Mandi has completed Master Degree in Industrial Electronics from VTU, Belagavi and Ph.D from Dr. MGR Educational & Research Institute, Chennai. His Research areas includes Cryptographic Algorithms and Protocols: Design, Analysis and Testing, Information Hiding, Network Steganography. Non-Standard Cryptographic Techniques: Chaos-Based Systems. He has several Publications in reputed International Journals, Conferences and has also published Patents. He has guided several Students towards Masters and Ph.D in his area of expertise during his three decades of teaching and research. Currently working on VGST funded Project in the field of speech encryption for secure communication.

He is involved regularly in conducting workshops, webinars, seminars and other outreach activities for the benefit of students and staff. He is also nominated as programme committee member for international Journals and conferences in the field of Electronics and communication Engineering. He is a life time member of ISTE, CRSI, ISAR, IAENG, IACSIT, ACEEE, SIE, CSTA. He is Chairman of BOS and BOE, Department of ECE, Dr. AIT. Dean (Planning & Development since October 2019 to December 2023); Coordinator - TEQIP-III (World Bank Project); Nodal Officer (Academic) - TEQIP-III (World Bank Project); Nodal Officer (Academic) - TEQIP-II (World Bank Project); Member – Governing Body (Dr. Ambedkar Institute of Technology); Member Secretary - IQAC (Dr. Ambedkar Institute of Technology); Non-Member Secretary – BOG (Dr. Ambedkar Institute of Technology); Member – Academic Council (Dr. Ambedkar Institute of Technology).